"IRVINE RANCH WATER DISTRICT NEITHER SUPPORTS NOR ENDORSES THE CAUSE NOR ACTIVITIES OF ORGANIZATIONS WHICH USE THE DISTRICT'S MEETING ROOMS THAT ARE MADE AVAILABLE AS A PUBLIC SERVICE"

Upcoming Meeting: Sunday 25 June at 2:00 p.m. –

Our guest speaker will be Ms. Ona Russell, who will talk primarily about historical mysteries. She is the author of three award-winning Sarah Kaufman historical mysteries, including The Natural Selection, a finalist in the 2009 California Book Awards, and Rule of Capture, winner of the 2015 IPPY silver medal for regional fiction and praised by the LA Times as the “L.A. mystery of the summer.” Ona holds a PhD in literature from UC San Diego where she also taught for many years. She has written and lectured nationally on the topic of "literature and the law" and magazine. Be sure to come!

Upcoming Meeting: Sunday 23 July at 1:00 p.m.-

This will be a joint event between Sisters in Crime of Orange County and the local branch of Mystery Writers of America. After we have all gorged ourselves in a manner that would revolt the characters on “Game of Thrones”, we will be given a presentation on electronic fraud/crime by Ms. Gina L. Osborn. Ms. Osborn began her law enforcement career in 1986 by enlisting in the U.S. Army as a Counterintelligence Special Agent. She spent six years in Belgium and Germany during the Cold War working the highest profile espionage cases in the European Theater. During Operation Desert Storm, Ms. Osborn actively participated in the investigation of United States Army artillery specialist Albert Sambolay, a soldier who attempted to sell sensitive materials to include troop deployment information to individuals from the Middle East. As a result of this investigation, Sambolay was convicted of committing espionage and was sentenced to 34 years in prison. In 1996, Ms. Osborn became a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She was assigned to the Los Angeles Field Office with duty in the Santa Ana Resident Agency. Ms. Osborn worked closely on a task force with detectives from the Westminster Police Department to investigate Asian Organized Crime in the Little Saigon District of Orange County, California. As a result of her efforts, several Asian Criminal Enterprises involved in violent crimes including extortion, loan sharking, drug trafficking and murder for hire were disrupted and dismantled. On September 11, 2001, Ms. Osborn was reassigned to work on international terrorism matters. In 2003, she was promoted to the position of Counterterrorism Program Coordinator for the Los Angeles Division of the FBI. She later supervised the Extraterritorial Squad which was responsible for conducting terrorism investigations against U.S. persons and U.S. interests in Asia, India and Australia. After working in Los Angeles, Ms. Osborn was promoted and assigned to the Inspection Division at FBI Headquarters. She led teams in the review and assessment of investigative programs in field offices and Headquarters' entities. Ms. Osborn specialized in inspecting International Terrorism and Cyber Programs and collaborated with the Cyber Division at FBI Headquarters to improve operations nationwide. In 2007, Ms. Osborn returned to Los Angeles as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the Cyber and Computer Forensics for the Central District of California. She currently oversees investigations relating to national security and criminal computer intrusions. Additionally, Ms. Osborn provided foundational leadership in the creation of the Orange County Regional Computer Forensics Lab (OCRCFL). The OCRCFL is part of a national network of FBI-sponsored, full-service forensics laboratories and training centers devoted entirely to the examination of digital evidence in support of federal, state, and local criminal and terrorism investigations. A native of Orange County, California, Ms. Osborn received her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from the University of Maryland. We are truly privileged to have her at our joint meeting. Following there is a poster on the event. Don't forget to RSVP; because it is a joint event, we will be quite crowded.

MEETING ROUNDUP

By Jack Martin

At the last meeting Ms. Diane Valere of the national organization gave an excellent presentation on youth-oriented mysteries, their history and development. Despite the stellar quality of her presentation, however, she did not manage to convince me that “The Silence of the Lambs” should not be considered a youth mystery.

MEMBER NEWS

Greta Boris has signed with Fawkes Press for the first two books in her 7 Deadly Sins suspense series. Book 1, A Margin of Lust, is scheduled to be released in June 2017. The second book, The Scent of Wrath, will be released later in the year.

Orange County Sheriff's Dept. will be sponsoring a Citizens' Academy -- beginning in July. This is a great opportunity to learn about the daily operations of the OCSD. It also includes some memorable outings. (Including a tour of the Orange County jail.) As a graduate of the program, Yours Truly is an avid supporter! But please note: the class fills up fast. Go to:

Our very own representative of British culture and sophistication, Ms. Jill Amedio, has appeared in a blog and in an article in MysteryPeople, a magazine that is published under the protection of her Majesty, Elizabeth II. Jill Amadio hails from Cornwall, U.K., like the character in her crime series. Amadio was a reporter in Spain, Colombia, Thailand, and the U.S. She is a true crime author, ghosted a thriller, writes a column for Mystery People ezine, and freelances for My Cornwall magazine. She is a member of Mystery Writers of America, Sisters in Crime, Mystery People and the Crime Writers Association UK. She lives in Southern California.
